Stocks.-There was no special news to affect stocks during the morning beyond that which alleged that the Lake Shore strike was declared off. There was a bet'er feeling all around. and under the leadership of Western Union, the market made ma'er al advances. It was again rumored that the Western Union and Baltimore and Ohio, and there was considerable covof shorts. It was also rumored the Chicago traders were covering shorts in Lake Shore as well as Weste a Union and information was disseminated indicating that the earnings of the Western roads still continue to show increases. The strength dis-played by the Southern and South-western stocks was the feature of the afternoon, but in the latter part of the day there were further rumors of trouble on the Lake Shore, and the market again became restricted and quotations tell off, although the market closed steady near the best prices of the day. Opening prices generally showed an advance of $ to $ per cent, while Louisville and Nash-ville was up 1 and Mirsouri, Kansa-and Texas and Omaha each 1 per cent. Reading and Pacific Mail were each 2 per cent. lower. There was a moderate business only, but extraor-dinary strength was developed in Western Union, and prices continued cent, and the general market sympa-thized to a limited extent. In the last hour, however, Western Union again advanced abarply, and the general market recovered steady tone and so closed. The frature of the day was Western Union, and it led the market in point of a tiv ty. Everything is higher tonight. Westirn Union gained opened quiet, and closed quiet and sleady. Sales, 13,000 bales. Quetalist fractional amounts only, but among the specialties Noshville and Chatta-

CHICAGO, ILL., June 23 .- The values fluctuated within the usual range to day and closed in the final trading somewhat lower than yesterday. The somewhat lower than yesterday. The public cable advices contained little encouragement, while private cables reported the free shipment of Indian wheat. The market opened lower, in consequence, at 74 jc for Angust, but gradually developed more strengts, advancing to 75 jc, but sayged off and closed at 74 i5-16c at 10 clock. In the afternoon the feeling was the weakest of the day, August dropping to 74 jc and closing at 74 i1-16c. A decrease of 2,003,030 br shels in the amount of wheat on octan parage was one of the wheat on octan parties are was one of the features of strength imparted to the market during the middle besion. The weakn to the strength in the afternoon was owing, in part, to the numous of a posible renewal of the railroad strikes in this city. Trailing was very dull in this city. Trading wes very dull in both corn and ca's, and prices developed little change. Flour dull and unchanged. Wheat moderately active, to lower than vesterday. Sales ranged: June 724@73tc, closed 75.16; July 734@73ic, closed 78 7-16c; August 744@75ic, cloced, 74 15-16c; No. 2 spring, 724@

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET, New York, June 23.—Although a rain storm has prevailed all day much attention has been given to flannels, blankets, dress fabrics, ladies' sack-ings, cloakings and fancy knit woolens, with good sales reported. Cotton goods have been in steady demand, and as stocks are c eared up prices are much firmer, and so much so that advanced prices in many instances should not be surprising.
